Student Return to School
Mormon Trail Community School District

Mormon Trail School District plans to start school using our Return to Learn Plan listed below. School start date is August 23, 2021. District Administration will continually monitor student and staff safety. Plans are subject to change.

- Masks will not be required, but will be supported for students and staff who wish to mask.
- Good cleaning and sanitizing practices will be implemented.
- Good handwashing routines will be implemented.
- District Administration and Board will continually monitor conditions.
- Intervention will be provided to support students and staff with Covid learning loss needs.
